PETER AND GORDON/BRIAN JONES' HARMONICA

Enlarge

"Brian Jones and I were very close friends. He came to quite a few of our sessions and taught me how to play the harmonica when we toured with the Stones. Brian gave the harmonica to me after he played it on a couple of Peter and Gordon tracks. I played it on a few as well. It's a bit rusty because Brian taught me a trick with these things: soak them in warm water just before you play them. It doesn't do them much good look-wise but the warm water makes the reeds softer and more flexible so you can "bend " the notes a lot more." (Gordon Waller)
